From The Rabbi

Recently, our Shabbat morning services have been significantly enriched by members of our synagogue family embracing the memory of their loved ones beyond the rituals of reciting the Mourner's Kaddish and having a Torah Aliyah. On one Shabbat in April, the 25th anniversary of a father's Yahrzeit was observed by a son leading Shacharit and Hallel, reading Torah, having an Aliyah and speaking about his father. This was all observed together with four generations of the family gathering together in the sanctuary for services and enjoying a Shabbat Kiddush after services together with the congregation. On a different Shabbat, a member of our synagogue family who tragically lost her daughter to cancer when she was a young woman in her early 40s, was in shul with her two daughters who had an Aliyah together and her niece who chanted the Haftarah in honor of the memory of her first cousin. I could feel the joy of the family being together, feeling the blessing of the memory of their daughter, sister and cousin and drawing strength from being in the synagogue sanctuary.

In addition to the truly meaningful Yahrzeit experiences, we have also had the opportunity to celebrate significant Bar Mitzvah anniversaries. In addressing a member of our synagogue family who celebrated the 60th anniversary of his becoming a Bar Mitzvah by chanting the Haftarah that he chanted 60 years ago, I reminded him that to every Bar Mitzvah Boy I say, "becoming a Bar Mitzvah is not the end or completion of your Jewish learning and your Jewish life, but only the beginning. We pray that as you continue on the journey of life as an adult that you will continue to actively participate in Jewish life and be guided by the teachings of the Torah." It is a great source of joy when a "Bar Mitzvah Boy" celebrates the 60th anniversary of his becoming a Bar Mitzvah together with the members of his synagogue family and brings with him the experience of having lived his adult life guided by the wisdom of Torah and the observance of Mitzvot.

In these next two months of May and June we will be celebrating in our sanctuary a 60th and an 80th anniversary of two Bar Mitzvah Boys and a 50th Wedding Anniversary.

It is a blessing when memories of loved ones and celebrations of significant anniversaries bring families and friends together with love and joy to celebrate Shabbat, feel the presence of God, and embrace the gift of life.

When I was first introduced to the Little Neck Jewish Center that has become Congregation L'Dor V'Dor-Oakland Little Neck Jewish Center, I was told that this is a Heimeshe shul. Heimishe can be understood as warm, welcoming and down to earth. I am grateful that we continue to embrace this identity and we welcome all who are interested in sharing your joy and remembrances and putting your special date on our shul calendar.

Presidential Matters

by Steve Aronowitz

I hope you were part of the big crowd at Sunday's tribute, "Celebrate and Remember Cantor Julian Raber." This was a heart-warming program with speaker after speaker reminiscing about their connections to our beloved Cantor who served the congregation for 30 years, from 1976. That means the majority of our Little Neck members were in attendance on several occasions, to be part of a service led by Rabbi Eckstein and Cantor Raber. Of course, this is a part of our story as Oakland members have also enjoyed a rich history of Cantorial leadership over many years under a different roof but with similar feelings. And, now we are together.

This past Sunday, however, was about Little Neck. The memories abound. Long-time member and former president, Don Forman, recounted that, "Many years ago, Barbara and Julie joined Esther and me, and Neil and Carolyn Berman in signing up for dance lessons at Mr. Mitchell Dance Studio on Middle Neck Road, (in Great Neck) .

"The first class went reasonably well as we were all told that there were possibilities," Don continued. "The second class led to remarks from Mr. Mitchell that we were the worst group he had ever taught. Julie refused to return."

For most of us, we can close our eyes and hear Cantor Raber davening, "Ha – Yom," as Yom Kippur drew to a close. The prayer that proclaimed the Day of Atonement "will give us strength," has to go down as one of the highlight moments in our Little Neck's 75-year history.

75 years of inspirational services, exceptional educational programs, family oriented activities, and special relationships. Isn't that what joining a synagogue is all about? Ask any member at either home and one will hear how important synagogue membership has been for three quarters of a century!

Last week we came together to celebrate Yom Ha'atzmaut! Over 50 members came to dance (Israeli dancing with instruction), and, of course, eat!

Good things are happening at our synagogue!!! And while finances are tight, we continue to work at hosting meaningful programs, inspiring so many.

Here's your chance to be part of "$75 for 75," a simple fundraiser. All we ask for is just that – a $75 donation in honor of both Oakland and Little Neck and the State of Israel, each celebrating a 75th anniversary, Join us in our '75 Salute' This fundraiser – one check for $75 – will help us continue to provide programming that has been part of our history – all 75 years of it!

Please be part of $75 for 75!

And join us at the upcoming membership meeting on June 5th as we report on the State of the Synagogue with a presentation of our proposed budget. Details will follow in separate mailing.

Count Me In

With $75 for 75!

I want to help the synagogue continue the programming that has been part of our 75 years of history.

From The Cantor

As many of you know, one of my passions in life is my weekly radio show and podcast about Israeli music (to hear it, visit MyIsraeliMusic.com). As a lifelong “radio geek”, I love spending time in the studio, sharing my enthusiasm with thousands of listeners each week. Plus, the music helps me connect to Israel and its culture in a deep and meaningful way.

Every so often, I’ll send out an email to promote the show to my mailing list. A few months back, I sent a message with the subject line “How Is Your Community Celebrating Israel’s 75th?”

Moments after sending, I received a chilling one-sentence reply from a listener in Florida:

“Given Israel's new racist government, we will not be celebrating Israel's 75th.”

It was like I was punched in the gut. Not celebrating Israeli Independence Day? Sure, there’s reason for concern these days, and plenty of room for frustration. But how could someone turn their back on the State of Israel because of the faults of a few temporary caretakers?

Sadly, in the weeks that followed, I learned she wasn’t alone. Beginning with the election of Israel’s current government, and continuing through the period of unprecedented protests that have swept the country, an alarming number of U.S. Jews have become lukewarm (at best) in their support for the Jewish State.

I think this is a grave mistake.

While it is natural to have disagreements with the political party in power (in Israel as well as in the U.S.A.), it is crucial for Jews to continue to support Israel. Here are some reasons why:

- 1. Israel is a haven for Jews. For centuries, Jews have been persecuted and discriminated against in various parts of the world. Israel provides a safe and secure home for Jews, where they can practice their religion and culture without fear of persecution. Though we tend to forget this while living comfortably in New York, Jews around the world are much safer with Israel on the map. Supporting Israel is not just about politics, but also about protecting Jewish lives and ensuring their safety.
- 2. Israel is a vital ally of the United States. Regardless of the parties in power, our two countries share many common values, including democracy, freedom, and human rights. Israel is a crucial partner in the fight against terrorism and the promotion of stability in the Middle East. Supporting Israel strengthens the ties between the United States and Israel and helps advance common interests.
- 3. Israel is a source of pride for Jews. Israel is a remarkable success story of a small nation that has overcome significant challenges to become a thriving and prosperous country. Israel has made remarkable contributions to the world in areas such as technology, science, medicine, and culture. Supporting Israel is not just about politics but also about celebrating Jewish achievements and promoting Jewish identity.
- 4. Israel needs support in challenging times. Israel faces many challenges, including security threats, diplomatic isolation, and internal divisions. Supporting Israel means standing with Israel during difficult times and helping it overcome these challenges.

The protests that have taken place in Israel over the past few months should be an immense source of pride as well. As far as I'm aware, they have been entirely peaceful. Hundreds of thousands take to the streets week after week, armed only with large Israeli flags, marching with peaceful unity and purpose. Can you think of another country where that would be the case? Do you think such protests would go nearly as smoothly here in the U.S.A.?

While we look on from afar with concern and care, our support, love and pride does not waver. I am so proud that our own community continues to show unequivocal support for Israel, even during these turbulent times. As you’ll see in the pages of this month’s Temple Talk, Israel remains at the heart of nearly everything we do at Congregation L’Dor V’Dor. See page 6 for an in-depth look at how our members remain informed about – and inspired by – the State of Israel on the occasion of her 75th birthday.

No, we are not blind to the faults of the country. Yes, there is definite reason for concern. Yes, we absolutely need to make our voices heard when necessary. But even in the face of frustration, let’s continue to recite the words of the Prayer for Israel with admiration and hope: “Avinu She-bashamayim, Rock and Redeemer of the people Israel: Bless the State of Israel, with its promise of redemption....Bless the Land with peace, and its inhabitants with lasting joy. And let us say: Amen.”

Celebrate Israel Parade 2023

by Karen Popowsky

Every year JCRC (the Jewish Community Relations Council) puts on a show! It's not a Broadway production but it is a major event on New York's Fifth Avenue. Of course I'm referring to the Celebrate Israel Parade. According to JCRC-NY, this parade is the "world's largest expression of solidarity with the Jewish state, and this year, it will mark Israel's 75th birthday under the theme, "ISRAEL @ 75:RENEWING THE HOPE". JCRC continues to state that the parade is " a chance for us to gather, Jews and non-Jews alike, and walk arm in arm together, as one." At this time when antisemitism is on the rise around the world, we MUST take a stand. We MUST show support for Israel when others want to see it cease to exist. We MUST be visible in our support of Israel. We, who live in the diaspora, MUST show Israel that we defend their existence. How do we do this?

We can march in solidarity with Israel, walking arm in arm with Jews and non-Jews in the CELEBRATE ISRAEL PARADE on Sunday, June 4, 2023. We, Congregation L'Dor V'Dor, will march with BayTerrace Garden Jewish Center, Congregation Etz Hayim, Hillcrest Jewish Center, Israel Center of Conservative Judaism and Temple Gates of Prayer as the Northeast Queens Jewish Community Council's cluster group (with many synagogues from Long Island) with JCRC -LI . We will proudly carry and wave Israeli and American flags as we pass spectators along the parade route up Fifth Avenue, beginning at 55th Street and ending at E.74 Street. We will show the world that Israel, at 75 years young, has been a leader in technology, medicine, agriculture, fashion and more. Israel has been a first responder to countries affected by natural disasters. Israel has been a country that has provided a home to people of many different backgrounds.

Will YOU be marching with us on June 4, 2023? Will YOU be showing your support of Israel by wearing a parade t shirt and cheering and waving to your friends who line the parade route? Please respond to these questions with a resounding YES! We have a shirt that will look great on YOU! Just let us know the size you need, and how many of your friends and family will be marching with us. It's that simple. And the more marchers we have, the louder the message to Israel: WE ARE WITH YOU EVERY STEP WE TAKE ! WE ARE WITH YOU ALL THE WAY! Looking forward to seeing YOU on Sunday, June 4, 2023 at the CELEBRATE ISRAEL PARADE!

Strengthening Our Bond With Israel By Investing In Israel Bonds

Join us for Shabbat Services on Saturday, May 20th

With Guest Speaker:

Rabbi Marty Pasternak

National Director of Synagogue and Rabbinic Activities

Services will begin at 9:00 am

Rabbi Pasternak will speak at 11:00 am

Rabbi Pasternak will share with us important insight into the role that Israel Bonds play in strengthening the economic well being of the State of Israel, and sustaining the vision of the Jewish people as a light unto the nations with a secure and glorious future.

For 72 of Israel's 75 years, through 15 Prime Ministers, the proceeds from the sales of Israel Bonds, now more than $46 billion dollars sold worldwide, have supported every aspect of Israel's economy—not politics or parties, or power, but the land, the people, the dream and the future.

Support Israel by investing in Israel Bonds. Click here for a current listing of investment opportunities with their current interest rates.

Congregation L'Dor V'Dor Celebrates

Israel @ 75

This year, Israel celebrates 75 years since its miraculous founding. It's an exciting milestone, marked by lots of activity at Congregation L'Dor V'Dor! In the weeks leading up to Yom Ha'atzmaut 2023, members enjoyed several wonderful opportunities to celebrate and connect to the Jewish State!

1. Lunch & Learn: Each Monday and Wednesday at 12:30 on Zoom, Cantor Shron and his enthusiastic participants discuss (and sometimes debate) current events in Israel. Born in the early days of the pandemic, this popular program continues to educate and inspire – helping us all to remain informed about the joys and complexities of life and politics in Israel.

2. Sunday Night at the Movies: Since early March, we've examined many of Israel's most accomplished prime ministers with a series of documentaries on Zoom. From David Ben-Gurion to Benjamin Netanyahu, synagogue members explored the trials, tribulations, successes and failures of Israel's greatest leaders throughout its 75-year history. These movies have been particularly inspiring in helping us understand how we've arrived at this significant milestone in Jewish history. Due to the great feedback we've received, we're planning to keep them coming. Watch for details on additional learning opportunities coming soon!

3. Yom HaShoah: Our annual commemoration focused primarily on how Holocaust Remembrance Day is observed in Israel among members of the younger generation. On Sunday, April 16, members of three area synagogues united to hear an extremely moving presentation from Doron Rachel Ziserman, speaking from her home in Israel. Doron shared the testimony of her grandfather, relaying his harrowing story with admiration, emotion, and love. Please take the time to watch this powerful presentation, available on YouTube by clicking here.

4. Yom HaZikaron and Yom Ha'atzmaut: After months of anticipation, the big day finally arrived! On Tuesday, April 25, approximately 40 members of our synagogue family joined to celebrate the miracle of the modern State of Israel, and to mourn those who lost their lives in making that miracle a reality. The evening began with a moving commemoration of Israel's Memorial Day by Rabbi Yaffe and Cantor Shron (click here to watch on YouTube), followed by a spirited celebration of Israel's 75th birthday – with delicious Israeli food, spirited Israeli dancing, and lots of fun! Special thanks to Karen Popowsky and her committee for planning a wonderful celebration of Israel's 75th!

5. Celebrate Israel Parade: Once again, Congregation L'Dor V'Dor will march down Fifth Avenue in New York City, taking part in the annual Celebrate Israel Parade! More than ever, our community needs to attend in huge numbers to show our unwavering commitment to the State of Israel. Be sure to show your solidarity by taking part in this very important event! The Torah as G-d's Mind

by Ellen Charlop

When a poet writes, or a painter paints, or a sculptor sculpts, and creates a piece of art, what are they giving to you?

It's not the poem, the painting, or the sculpture.
What they are giving you is a piece of themselves.
They are giving you a piece of their soul.

That's what G-d gave to us.

G-d put His soul in a moment and gave it to us. One G-d gave us one Torah, on One day, in One moment, in One utterance, in One place, to One nation, at One time. It was a One shot deal. But, each person chooses to receive the Torah, to experience it and to hear G-d speaking to him/her in his/her own way, according to their own capacity, and their own level of understanding, throughout the year, all the time. That's why there's no date for the holiday of Shavuot. We are experiencing it all the time. We are always cultivating, nurturing, and expanding our consciousness of the Torah.

"Delve into it again and again. Use it to see the truth, for all is in it. Grow old in it and depart not from it. Turn it and turn it for everything is in it"(Pirkei Avot)

The Torah speaks to us differently at different phases of life.

Sinai was unique. It was a one time event. All of us stood at the mountain together. Physically it will never happen again. But spiritually it happens everytime we choose to receive Torah. In daily life, whether it be conducting business, collecting shells on the beach, dealing with difficult people, or watching a glorious sunset, ask yourself, what is my Torah? If you sense the divine presence in your actions and how you respond to everyday situations, G-d is speaking to you.

In the Zohar it says that the Torah is a single mystical Name. It is one long word or name of G-d. There are no vowels in the Torah. The Maharal of Prague, a 16th century Rabbi, says that at Sinai we heard one single utterance, and in that single utterance were all the Mitzvot. We heard one utterance, "Anochi", the first word of the 10 commandments. And that's all we had to hear.

Anochi is an acronym for "Anah Nafshi Katavit Yahvit-" I, my soul, have written and given. The Zohar says that G-d created the Torah before He created the world. Like an architect who refers to a blueprint, G-d looked into the Torah (His Mind) and created the world.

The Torah is G-d's mind.

At the time of creation, G-d spoke in the form of a monologue. Monologue can be accomplished without formulating thought into words. It's like when you think to yourself. G-d was thinking to Himself.

Dialogue, on the other hand, takes place between two parties. There is consideration of the other one's level of understanding. This is how G-d spoke to us at Sinai. He had to adapt His speech to our level of understanding. More than G-d spoke to us, He infused the Torah into us. G-d and Torah are one and the same.

Shavuot is like a romantic love story.

It is the Divine wedding and the Torah is the ketubah. Passover is the Betrothal, Shavuot is the Ketubah, Sukkot is the Chuppah, and Simchat Torah is the Dance Party!

May we be attuned to receiving the voice of G-d in our everyday life, and may the living words of Torah speak to us now and throughout the whole year. See you at Sinai!

The Circus Train

by Amita Parikh

A NATIONAL BESTSELLER

At the World of Wonders, Europe's most magnificent travelling circus, every moment is full of magic, and nothing is as it seems—especially for the people who put on the show

Lena Papadopoulos has never quite found her place within the circus, even as the daughter of the extraordinary headlining illusionist, Theo. Brilliant and curious, Lena yearns for the real-world magic of science and medicine, despite her father's overprotectiveness and the limitations of her wheelchair.

Lena's unconventional life takes an exciting turn when she rescues Alexandre, an orphan with his own secrets and a mysterious past. Over several years, as their friendship flourishes and Alexandre trains as the illusionist's apprentice, World War II escalates around them. When Theo and Alexandre are contracted to work and perform in a model town for Jews set up by the Nazis, Lena becomes separated from everything she knows. Forced to make her own way, she must confront her doubts and dare to believe in the impossible—herself.

A must-read for fans of The Night Circus and Water for Elephants, The Circus Train will take readers on a heart-rending and spectacular two-decade journey across Europe. When all is lost, how do you find the courage to keep moving forward?

A Shabbat and Festival Kiddush Sponsored in Celebration of the Memory of three Special People in Marjorie Goldstein's life

Saturday, May 27th Following Shabbat/Shavuot Services

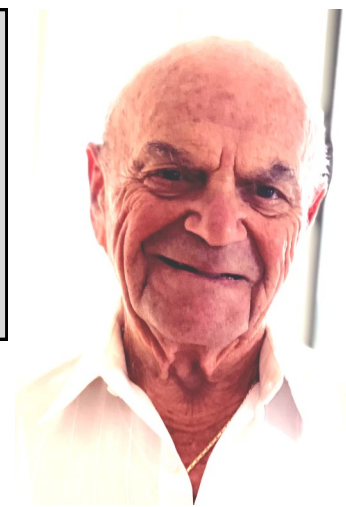

I will be sponsoring the kiddish on Saturday, May 27th in honor of the 5th Yahrzeit of my beloved husband Lenny and in honor of the 27th Yahrzeit of my beloved Grandmother Janet Itkin and the 33rd Yahrzeit of my beloved Grandfather Harry Itkin.

Please join me as we all remember the friendship we had with Lenny, his great qualities and the love we shared with him. I am forever grateful to my family, friends, and the members of my Synagogue family at Congregation L'Dor V'Dor who have been there for me during good times and difficult times.

Hope to see you in Synagogue on May 27th as we celebrate the life of Lenny, my Grandparents, Shavuot, Shabbat and the meaningful and everlasting friendships that we have made.

At Shabbat Services on Saturday, June 17th Saul Spindel will celebrate the 80th anniversary of his becoming a Bar Mitzvah by being honored with the Maftir Aliyah and chanting the Haftarah.

Reflections 80 Years in About 80 Seconds

June 26, 1943: a warm, sunny Shabbos morning, began with a walk from 247th St. in Bellerose to the Queens Jewish Center on Hollis Hills Blvd. With my parents, my Bubbie and Zeide and my sister. It was my Bar Mitzvah day. My father led Shacharis and Zeide led Musaf and I chanted the Haftarah. I can't remember my emotions, nervous I guess, yet relieved that the day had finally come. Of course, there was the usual speech and then a party the next day at Ward Ave. Synagogue (in the Bronx—my uncle was the caterer). In a flash, it was over. Little did I realize (or probably never thought about) what the future had in store for me.

I graduated elementary school that June, went to Brooklyn Technical HS where I majored in chemistry, started going nights to Brooklyn College and got a job in a lab in the paint industry. In 2000, 53 years and two jobs later, I retired as the president of a laboratory which specialized in paint and sealant technology.

During that span, I met and married Esther, my love and guiding light. In 1952 I went into the army and served in Korea. After coming home, we started a family. We had 3 children. I graduated from Brooklyn College, then came 4 grandchildren and then 4 great-grandchildren. What blessings.

I retired in 2000 and we bought a condo in Florida which we have been using every winter since. Now on June 17, 2023 I will once again chant Haftarah Shelach. I am grateful to Cantor Shron and Rabbi Yaffe for their help and wish Mazel Tov to Rabbi who is celebrating the 50th anniversary of his Bar Mitzvah.

We were privileged to honor the memory of

on Sunday, April 30, 2023

Below is the picture of the plaque that was presented which will be hanging in the lobby of the synagogue and some thoughts submitted from members of our synagogue family.

Julian Raber

Cantor - Little Neck Jewish Center
1976 - 2006

We Celebrate Julian's Life, Remembering
A Special Person Who Touched Us All

His Enormous Capacity To Inspire Youth
And Uplift The Jewish Spirit Of Our
Congregants Enriched Our Lives

May His Memory Be A Source Of Strength And Encouragement

For Guiding Through Example

For Inspiring With Passion

For Leaving An Indelible Mark On The Future

You Will Forever Be Remembered

Dedicated

April 30, 2023

Our sons, Joshua and Brian were the Cantor's last Bar/Bat Mitzvah students before retirement. Early on he loaded up their assignments, telling them he was retiring and they would be finished early. By the time we realized he "played" them, they were prepared to lead most of the Shabbat service. We all grew to appreciate and enjoy Cantor's humor, love of music and his memory continues to inspire us.

Mindy and Rich Rosenfeld

Cantor Raber was fabulous in teaching Hillary and Melissa their Haftorahs. He said they had amazing voices and their B'nai Mitzvah was very special. I'll always remember Julie as being very compassionate, kind and caring when he offered support when he saw Lenny at the Cardiologist when Lenny was ill. And of course we will always remember Julie singing Ha Yom, Ha Yom, Ha Yom for the High Holidays!

Marjorie Goldstein

Cantor Raber was gracious and warm with a wonderful sense of humor. We fondly remember how he welcomed into the synagogue as new members.

Nina and Irwin Wolf

It is a privilege to be part of honoring Cantor Julie Raber's memory. Everyone remembers Julie as a chazzan who was able to get the entire congregation on its feet, belting out the prayers. His rendition of "HaYom" on the High Holidays is legendary. This is a very personal story about Julie.

The Alpersteins had been members of what we came to feel was our LNJC "family" for many years, when Les, z'l, died in February 2000. Rabbi Eckstein was about to retire. Our daughter Nicky had just got engaged, and the wedding had been set for August of that year. Rabbi Prouser became our Rabbi, but Nicky had not had enough time to come to know him. So when the question arose about who would officiate, she wanted it to be Julie Raber.

It just fell into place.

Since family and friends would be coming from South Africa and England, we decided to have Les' unveiling on the Sunday before the wedding. Naturally Julie was in attendance and his meaningful words provided closure for those who were not able to be with us during shiva.

The wedding would be on that coming Thursday night in New York City. But Julie was only licensed in Nassau County.

No problem.

The night before the wedding, Julie came over to our house, set up a Chuppah in the dining room, with Teddy Shapiro, z'l, in attendance as a witness. Nicky and Eric were officially married, with close family present.

The following evening, under the Chuppah that was an Agam Chuppah Tallit, which late Les had bought in Jerusalem in order to begin a family tradition, Julie, knowing Les' wishes, put his heart and soul into the ceremony.

Julie was was a mensch among menschen. He was there for my family at the worst and at the best of times. And these are memories I will always cherish.

My loving thoughts are with Barbara and the family. Alav ha-Shalom.

 Receptacles Are In The Synagogue Lobby

Thank You!

For A Gift of $13,600

Since September of 2005, Marcia and Richard Kops have been members of our synagogue family. Before joining our congregation the Kops had been members of the Queens Village Jewish Center that had to close its doors in 2002 after 77 years of fulfilling its mission to “serve every segment of the community...through its over-all programming to make Jewish Life meaningful, dignified and joyful.”

Recently, after having sold their building and taking care of all of their financial obligations, the leadership of Queens Village Jewish Center asked their former members for recommendations of worthy Jewish Charities and Organizations for recipients of tzedakh that would help them in their work to further Jewish Values. Marcia and Richard Kops recommended Congregation L’Dor V’Dor—Oakland Little Neck Jewish Center and we have become the grateful recipients of $13, 600.

We would like to thank Marcia and Richard Kops, and the leadership of the Queens Village Jewish Center. We are grateful to have the opportunity to keep the legacy the Queens Village Jewish Center alive by using these funds to help to sustain our mission which embodies the same purpose as theirs.

Sponsor A Kiddush

There are many ways to celebrate a happy occasion such as a birthday, anniversary, birth of a child or grandchild or to remember a loved one's yearzeit. Help us help you either celebrate or commemorate an event by sponsoring a Shabbos morning kiddush or a Friday evening Oneg Shabbat.

We have a kiddush every Saturday following services that gives people an opportunity to sit and talk and socialize as part of the Shabbos experience. Be part of that experience even if you are at home on Zoom. Help us make these kiddushim possible, contribute to our kiddush fund and your names will be included in the Shabbat morning bulletin and Temple Talk, along with the occasion you are remembering.
