From the Rabbi

In these two months of March and April there are five special Shabbatot:

Shabbat Shekalim	March 9	Shabbat Hachodesh	April 6
Shabbat Zachor	March 23	Shabbat Hagadol	April 20
Shabbat Parah	March 30

On each of these Shabbatot there is a special reading from the Torah and a special Haftarah that help us to learn about and embrace the significance of these Shabbatot that are part of the spiritual preparation for the celebration of Purim and Pesach. In this column I will share some wisdom on Shabbat Shekalim that will be on Saturday, March 9. At our Shabbat Experiences on Saturday, March 16 and Saturday April 20 we will continue our learning about these special Shabbatot.

The following is some wisdom from the staff of the OU.

In the Talmud we learn of a connection between Shabbat Shekalim and Purim.

Reish Lakish said: It is revealed and known in advance, to the One who spoke and the world came into being, that in the future Haman was going to weigh out shekels against the Jewish people; therefore, God arranged that the Jewish people's shekels that were given to the Temple preceded Haman's shekels. And this is as we learned in a mishna (Shekalim 2a): On the first of Adar the court makes a public announcement about the contribution to the Temple of half-shekels that will soon be due, and about the need to uproot forbidden mixtures of diverse kinds of seeds from the fields now that they have begun to sprout. Therefore, it turns out that the Jewish people give the shekels on the first of Adar, preceding the date of Haman's planned destruction of the Jewish people and his own collecting of shekels. (Megilla 13b)

The Yerushalmi similarly suggests that the merit of the Jews' communal participation in the sacrificial service, through the donation of the half shekel, protected them from Haman's edict, which included a payment of money ("eshkol"- Ester 3:9) to the royal treasury.

Rabbi Moshe Alshich (Safed, 1508-1593), in his Torah commentary (Shemot 30:11), explains that the commandment to donate specifically a half-shekel (as opposed to a complete shekel) demonstrates how all members of the nation combine to comprise a single, organic whole.

The unity of the Jewish people, as demonstrated through the half shekel donation, counters Haman's accusation that the Jews are "a certain people scattered abroad and dispersed among the peoples" (Esther 3:8). When each member of the Jewish people recognizes that he or she is just a half, one part of the greater whole, this engenders a sense of unity within the nation. With this unity the members of the nation become worthy of forgiveness and immune to Haman's plans. As the Yerushalmi adds, "Therefore, we precede Purim with Shabbat Shekalim on which we read the section in the Torah regarding the offering of the 1/2 Shekel. This helps us to remember and internalize the true reason behind our redemption from the evil designs of Haman.

Each year on Shabbat Shekalim, in preparation for the celebration of Purim, we remember, and internalize, the true reason behind our redemption from the evil designs of Haman.

We are living in time that once again we as a Jewish people are being attacked, not just in Israel, but all over the world. The message of Shabbat Shekalim leading up to the celebration of Purim is the importance of building and maintaining unity within our Jewish family. At times we may agree to disagree, but at the end of the day our tradition teaches us to embrace each other with love. We hope to be guided by the values of our tradition and our relationship with God. This can give us strength to walk on the path of life guided by truth and this can help us to be partners with God to bring peace and harmony to our world.

Looking Ahead

On Friday morning, February 23rd, 2024, my wife Diane and I start a new and exciting venture together. We have a one-way flight to the Harry Reid Airport in Las Vegas. We will be continuing our life's journey together in our new home in Henderson, Nevada (an adjacent suburb of Las Vegas). Lots of time, thought, energy and discussion transpired before this decision was reached.

We have been members of Congregation L'Dor V'Dor for 11 ½ years. As the old adage states, "time flies when you are having a great time." The truth is, we have truly enjoyed all of our experiences in this shul. We fluctuated between being Saturday morning attendees and Friday night attendees. Both services provided us exactly what we were looking for. We also attended numerous holiday celebrations, many social events and always looked forward to the annual community events that we were involved with. As much as we hope we supported the synagogue, Diane and I greatly benefitted from our membership.

Approximately 6 ½ years ago I decided it was time to "get involved" with my synagogue. At my prior synagogue, I held nearly every Executive Board position except President, and my break from Synagogue Administration was over. I quickly took on the role of Executive Vice President for a year. I then became Co-President with Marjorie Goldstein for one year. For the last 4 ½ years I have been Co-President with Steve Aronowitz. Aside from some meetings that ran too late into the evening and that rare meeting that was "a tad" contentious, filling these roles was a wonderful experience for me. I learned so much from my Co-Presidents as well as from every person who was a board member during this tenure period. After taking another administrative break, I know that I will be using my experiences here to improve my new synagogue, in Henderson.

Looking forward, I see a great life ahead for me and Diane. We purchased a beautiful home in a tremendously large 55+ community. This community has 3 club houses, every sport imaginable, a huge gym, 3 indoor and outdoor pools and offers 60 clubs that meet on a regular basis. I am nearly guaranteed that my snow shoveling days are over. The best benefit of this move is that we will be a short 15 minute car ride away from our son, who is a college professor. We are both so excited about starting the next chapters in our life story together.

Using my crystal ball, I see a very long and bright future for Congregation L'Dor V'Dor. Like every synagogue, there are some obstacles that need to be overcome. We have an extremely energetic Rabbi who always has this congregation's best interests at heart. We have a tremendous staff that all give more than 100% every day. We have a group of members who put so much time into ensuring that they utilize their personal skills to make this temple better and stronger. We have just recently seen some new social programs that have been extremely well attended. Possibly our secret weapon is that we have a President who somehow gives more of himself to this shul every single year. We should not take Steve's tremendous effort lightly. One thing is certain: there is no place to go but up. However, there is one tremendous need. That need is you! We need more participation at our services and classes. We need more people to assist in idea creation, rolling up their sleeves and helping out in any manner possible. Last but not least, we all know that finances are an issue and I am sure we all agree that everyone needs to take an active role in financially supporting our religious home. Our synagogue has a glorious 75-year history and I would like to think, "the best is yet to come!"

I thank you for all the wonderful experiences and memories Diane and I take with us. I thank you for giving me the chance to serve as a member of the leadership team. I truly wish each individual a long, happy and healthy life and may we continue to share our many happy experiences as one community for many years to come.

THANK YOU

From Cantor Taub

After 35 years as a practicing accountant, I finally obtained my dream job; a Cantor's position throughout the year.

I literally grew up in a shul, The Conservative Synagogue, Adath Israel of Riverdale. My father was very active in the shul as a layman and was in the building every night. Figuring that seemed like a good place to be, I did all my homework at the shul and, of course, attended services every Friday night, Saturday morning and Saturday afternoon.

As a result of being in the building all the time, the Rabbi, Chaim Pearl, took me under his tutelage. Over the years I developed a complete synagogue skill-set.

When I was thirteen, I blew the shofar on Rosh Hashanah and at the end of Yom Kippur. At fourteen I learned to read the entire Megilat Esther for Purim. At fifteen, I was the High Holiday Shacharit Shaliach Tzibor. I also learned from Rabbi Pearl the skill of Torah reading.

The most frightening experience I had was when I was an eighteen year old and I was davening Kol Nidre for the first time. I knew I was simply too young for this responsibility. I watched the congregation file into the synagogue and did not realize how nervous I was becoming. I got up to sing Kol Nidre and could not sing at all. My throat had totally tightened up out of fear. The Rabbi had to chant Kol Nidre that night!

Once I was married and wanted to buy a house, my wife and I left the Bronx and moved to Westchester County. For many years I have had a Cantor's position for the High Holidays. In addition, for the last 20 years, I have been reading Megilat Esther for a shul in Long Island.

I enjoy very much having congregational singing during all services. Over the last few weeks Rabbi Yaffe has been informing me of the congregation's favorite tunes which I hope to master very shortly.

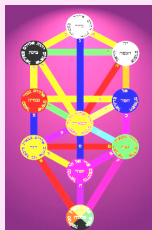

My mother was very frum. When I told her as a young man that I wanted to be a Cantor, she was pleased but then asked "what will you do for a living?" Well, the truth is davening is living and I hope to share that joy with the congregation.

A Special Evening of Prayer Honoring the Life and Legacy of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.

by Marla Litvin

On January 12th of this year, our synagogue held a memorable Shabbat service commemorating the legacy of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. This year on April 4th will mark the 56th year of his passing. During this evening's program our congregation and our guests were inspired by his lasting words through special speeches, the power of prayer, and song.

The evening's program began with Rabbi Yaffe providing a welcome and opening prayer. At this service we were privileged to have as our honored guest Donovan Richards, our Queens Borough President. President Richards spoke eloquently of the importance of unity in our communities. He invoked Dr. King's quote, "We may have all come on different ships, but we are in the same boat now" to emphasize how Dr. King's words even apply today. President Richards elaborated that he had attended a trip to Israel following October 7th. He discussed how saddened he was by what he had witnessed and that he stands in solidarity with Israel.

Also in our audience, that evening, was Assemblyman Edward Braunstein for District 26 in Bayside. He, too, spoke of his devotion to the Queens community and how fortunate we are to be a part of a very diverse community. He, like President Richards, went to Israel to demonstrate his support.

Our Shabbat services were also graced by the presence of Reverend Janine West-Mays of the St. John's Baptist Church in Westbury, Long Island. Reverend Mays led us, responsively, in "A Prayer for Israel in Time of War." This was a very significant moment in our service. To have Reverend Mays read this prayer with us amplified support and strength to our prayer. Thank you, Reverend Mays. Am Yisrael Chai.

Following Reverend Mays, Pastor Eddie Dhanpat of the Renew City Church in Little Neck ascended to the podium. Pastor Dhanpat offered words of spiritual and inspirational wisdom. He discussed how it is vital that people respect one another. There is too much hate in the world. He stressed the importance of love in the community. People need to care about one another. He cited Dr. King's quote: "Darkness cannot drive out darkness; only light can do that. Hate cannot drive out hate; only love can do that."

After the silent devotion, we were honored with a musical prayer by the members of the St. John's Baptist Church. At the conclusion of the Shabbat evening service, Mitchell Stein, our Co-President, welcomed all to our sanctuary and thanked all for attending.

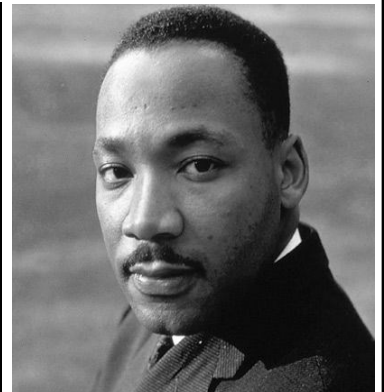

At the conclusion of Mitchell's speech, Rabbi Yaffe directed us all to rise and form a semi-circle around the sanctuary. We were given the word to "We Shall Overcome" and were asked to hold hands. As we sang the words of the song, I looked at everyone. I felt that we truly symbolized that people can be united through prayer and community. It was the perfect ending to a very meaningful Shabbat service! Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. would be very proud.

"Darkness cannot drive out darkness:
only light can do that.

Hate cannot drive out hate:
only love can do that."

"I have decided to stick to love...
Hate is too great a burden to bear."

“The Museum of Failures”
by Thrity Umrigar

This immersive story about family secrets and the power of forgiveness from the bestselling author of Reese’s Book Club pick, Honor, is a Book Riot Best Book of 2023.

When Remy Wadia left India for the United States, he carried his resentment of his cold and inscrutable mother with him and has kept his distance from her. Years later, he returns to Bombay, planning to adopt a baby from a young pregnant girl—and to see his elderly mother again before it is too late. She is in the hospital, has stopped talking, and seems to have given up on life.

Struck with guilt for not realizing just how ill she had become, Remy devotes himself to helping her recover and return home. But one day in her apartment he comes upon an old photograph that demands explanation. As shocking family secrets surface, Remy finds himself reevaluating his entire childhood and his relationship to his parents, just as he is on the cusp of becoming a parent himself. Can Remy learn to forgive others for their human frailties, or is he too wedded to his sorrow and anger over his parents’ long-ago decisions?

Surprising, devastating, and ultimately a story of redemption and healing still possible between a mother and son, The Museum of Failures is a tour de force from one of our most elegant storytellers about the mixed bag of love and regret. It is also, above all, a much-needed reminder that forgiveness comes from empathy for others.

Happy Passover

Sale of Chametz

During the week of Pesach, it is forbidden for any Jew to own chametz. To avoid the unnecessary financial hardship that could result from requiring Jews to dispose of all items that are chametz, it has become customary to sell items of chametz to non-Jews for the week of Pesach. If you would like to sell your chametz to insure that you abide by the Jewish law of not owning any chametz during the week of Pesach, please fill out the form below and return it to the synagogue office on or before Thursday, April 18.

I/we _____ (name) would like to appoint Rabbi Gordon Yaffe as my/our agent to sell all items of chametz that are in my/our possession at _____ (address). This sale will be effective at 10:00 a.m. on Monday, April 22.

Moses said to Pharaoh:

“Let my people go so that we may serve our G-d.”

Today we don't need to ask Pharaoh. All we need to do is come to the synagogue! On this Festival of Freedom, let us exercise our freedom to be Jewish and join together for services on Passover.

Calling All First Born (Men and Women)

Siyyum Bechorim

Monday, April 22 at 7:15 a.m.

According to Jewish law, all Jews who are the first born children of either their father or mother should fast on the day before Passover (or two days before when Pesach begins on Saturday night) in commemoration of the deliverance of the first born children of the ancient Israelites from the angel of death. However, individuals who are obligated to fast are exempted from fasting if they have the opportunity to participate in a seudat mitzvah, a festive meal that follows the performance of certain mitzvot. Therefore, it has become customary for synagogues, on the day before Passover, to make a siyyum, a public completion of the study of a passage from the Torah, which is followed by a seudat mitzvah, a meal associated with fulfilling a mitzvah. This meal exempts the first born participants from their obligation to fast. We will have a short session of learning that will be followed by Bagels and Shmear. Come to the synagogue or click here to daven with us.

The First Day of Passover Tuesday April 23 at 9:00 a.m.

The morning after the first seder is a great time to come to synagogue to celebrate our freedom. A special prayer for dew, the Hallel Psalms, reading from two Torah scrolls and chanting the prayers to the festival melodies all add up to a true expression of joy in the freedom to be Jewish.

The Second Day of Passover Wednesday, April 23 at 9:00 a.m.

How fortunate we are to have a second chance to celebrate our Freedom by gathering to pray, study Torah and draw strength from one another in our Zoom Room.

Erev Seventh Day of Passover Sunday, April 28 at 7:30 p.m.

Seventh Day of Passover Monday, April 29 at 9:00 a.m.

On this day, with a special reading from the Torah, we relive the experience of the parting of the Sea of Reeds. With this day we begin the crescendo with which we end the week of Passover.

Erev Eighth Day of Passover/Yizkor Monday, April 29 at 8:15 p.m.

We begin the concluding day of the Festival of Pesach at night with a Maariv Service including the Yizkor Memorial Service.

Eighth Day of Passover Tuesday, April 13 at 9:00 a.m. Yizkor Service at 11:15 a.m.

We conclude the Festival of Pesach with songs and prayer! On this day, we take time to celebrate the blessing of the memory of our loved ones who are no longer with us.

Women's Seder

We are excited to announce that this year our Sisterhood will hold a Multigenerational Women's Seder, a variation of the traditional Passover Seder celebration, specifically designed for and led by women. The customary elements of a Seder will be included but with a focus on women's experiences, traditions, and perspectives. This will be an evening of learning, singing and community building to inspire and educate leading up to the Passover Seder.

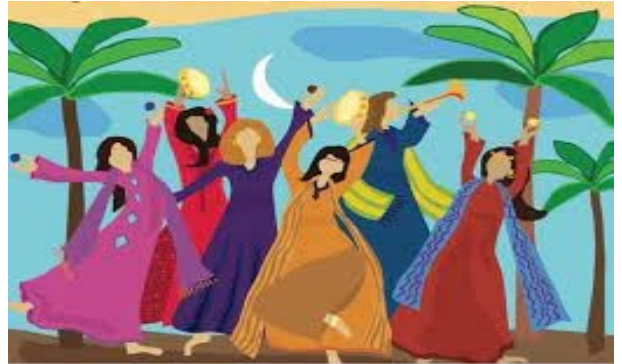

The Sisterhood Multigenerational Women's Seder will be held on Sunday April 14th at 4:00 pm at Congregation L'Dor V'Dor. A committee has begun crafting a special Haggadah that will guide the evening of learning and fun. A festive meal, with all the special Passover foods, as well as the four cups of wine will be served.

We anticipate this to be a meaningful and empowering experience for participants of all ages. Bring your mother, daughters, granddaughters, aunts, nieces, and friends and a copy of your favorite kosher for Passover recipe on an index card.

Increase the Joy of Purim for your family and friends by sending them a beautiful Sisterhood Purim Card!

IT'S PURIM TIME AGAIN!!!! 2024

On Purim we exchange gifts with friends and relatives and make donations with a special emphasis on donations to the poor. That's because we want to be as happy as possible on Purim, and it's giving to others that brings us true happiness. The gifts that we are sponsoring for you to directly give to friends and relatives are our beautiful purim cards which were created by Harriet Spivack this year. The card tells your friends and relatives that you are not only thinking of them but that you are making a donation to help others.

This is a major fund raiser for our synagogue and for wonderful groups which receive half of the money generated. It is a purim tradition to give shalech mones, and our synagogue also has a Pack It Up for Purim project to send food to people who need our help. We are also making financial donations to less fortunate people.

The sisterhood will be making donations to:

The Safe Center formed by the merger of Nassau County Coalition Against Domestic Violence and the Coalition Against Child Abuse and Neglect.

Kleinman Family Ohel Regional Center which offers a safe dwelling, foster care and counseling for those suffering domestic violence.

NY Board of Rabbis' program for children with special needs.

This fundraiser has grown for each of the last two years; let's make it grow again this year. If you were one of those who received a card last year from your friends and relatives but didn't send any yourself, think about sending to others this year.

Please note: In order to reciprocate to members who send to you, it is necessary that you send to at least two members. If we do not require this, the reciprocation process lacks donations necessary to "seed" the process.

All orders MUST be received in the synagogue office on or before Saturday, March 9

Little Neck Jewish Center
Attn: Tracey Berkinsky
4910 Little Neck Pkwy
Flushing, Queens, NY 11362

Dear Ms. Berlinsky and Little Neck Jewish Center,

The Marion & Aaron Gural JCC gratefully acknowledges your extensive generous contributions in coordinating both a food drive and delivering the items to The S.H.O.P. on October 20th to our Rina Shkolnik Kosher Food Pantry. These numerous items were immensely appreciated by the clients we serve.

Our food pantry, located at our social services hub, The S.H.O.P. (Sustenance Hope Opportunities Place) currently serves thousands of individuals monthly; assisting them by offering perishable and non-perishable food, cleaning supplies and personal care items. As you can imagine, this year we have experienced a significant increase in demand for our services and your generous donation will help us to meet the additional needs of these families facing food insecurity.

The Marion & Aaron Gural JCC is a not for profit organization under Article 501c3 of the Internal Revenue Service code, your charitable donation is therefore, tax deductible. Please note, "no goods or services were provided in exchange for this contribution."

Thank you again for your support of the JCC and the community at large.

Sincerely,

Stacey Feldman

Dear Congregation L' Dor V' Dor,

Greetings from the Saint John's Baptist Church Outreach Ministry. As we continue to face uncertain times, it is refreshing to know that there are people concerned about the welfare of others.

Thank you so much for your generous donations to our outreach efforts.

Because of your gifts, we were able to make personal donations to 2 families, deliver 40 care packages to men & women's group home, distribute toys and household items to our clients and share with others as requested.

We appreciate your help as we carry out the great commission.

Sincerely Yours,

Reverend Jannie West Mays

Dear congregants,

Covid had put a hold on our ability to donate glasses and old phones to the Lions Club and Edward Jones. But you cannot stop the members of L Dor V Dor from gathering these items and bringing them to the synagogue as soon as we were comfortable coming to services.

So, this week I made a delivery of over 100 glasses to Pearl Vision and 30 old phones to Edward Jones. Each of these organizations has continued providing the old phones to our soldiers overseas and the refurbished glasses to optical missions around the world.

Thank you all for your continued support and future support. Please keep donating these much-needed items.

Yours truly
Elaine Fleischman

We need your help!!

In order to continue running our Rummage Sale we are asking for a/or Volunteer(s) to chair the event. Please contact the office to let us know you are interested in chairing the Rummage Sale.

SPONSOR A KIDDUSH

One of the best things about coming to shul on Shabbat is the kiddush that follows services. This is an opportunity, especially after all the Covid restrictions we experienced, to sit with our friends and co-congregants. People are returning to shul to pray and then look forward to the socialization following services, while having something to eat and drink. However, these kiddushes come at a cost.

We are asking those of you who have happy occasions such as an anniversary of a bar/bat mitzvah, births of grandchildren, graduations, weddings, anniversaries, as well as those who have observances of yahrzeits of relatives, to sponsor a kiddush. First, come to shul so that our communal family can celebrate those happy occasions with you as well as responding "Amen" when you recite the Kaddish for your deceased loved ones. This is what a congregational family is about.

For those of you who come to shul in person or on Zoom to observe a yahrzeit, you will be given some type of honor, which could be an aliyah during the Torah reading, opening the Ark or leading an English reading. We invite you to include in your response to the memory of a loved one a contribution to the Kiddush Fund. Your name(s) will be published in our weekly Shabbat Shalom message and the weekly program that we prepare for Shabbat. The full cost of sponsoring a standard kiddush is $350. Even if you do not want to subsidize the entire cost, a contribution towards the cost will be recognized.

You can also sponsor an Oneg Shabbat, following Friday night services as well. The cost of sponsoring a Friday Night Oneg is $180.
