Calling All First Born (Men and Women) Siyyum Bechorim

Monday, April 22 at 7:15 a.m.
No evening service

According to Jewish law, all Jews who are the first born children of either their father or mother should fast on the day before Passover (or two days before when Pesach begins on Saturday night) in commemoration of the deliverance of the first born children of the ancient Israelites from the angel of death. However, individuals who are obligated to fast are exempted from fasting if they have the opportunity to participate in a seudat mitzvah, a festive meal that follows the performance of certain mitzvot. Therefore, it has become customary for synagogues, on the day before Passover, to make a siyyum, a public completion of the study of a passage from the Torah, which is followed by a seudat mitzvah, a meal associated with fulfilling a mitzvah. This meal exempts the first born participants from their obligation to fast. We will have a short session of learning that will be followed by Bagels and Shmear. Come to the synagogue or click here to daven with us.

The First Day of Passover Tuesday April 23 at 9:00 a.m.

The morning after the first seder is a great time to come to synagogue to celebrate our freedom. A special prayer for dew, the Hallel Psalms, reading from two Torah scrolls and chanting the prayers to the festival melodies all add up to a true expression of joy in the freedom to be Jewish.

The Second Day of Passover Wednesday, April 24 at 9:00 a.m.

How fortunate we are to have a second chance to celebrate our Freedom by gathering to pray, study Torah and draw strength from one another.

Erev Seventh Day of Passover Sunday, April 28 at 7:30 p.m.

Seventh Day of Passover Monday, April 29 at 9:00 a.m.

On this day, with a special reading from the Torah, we relive the experience of the parting of the Sea of Reeds. With this day we begin the crescendo with which we end the week of Passover.

Erev Eighth Day of Passover/Yizkor Monday, April 29 at 8:15 p.m.

We begin the concluding day of the Festival of Pesach at night with a Maariv Service including the Yizkor Memorial Service.

Eighth Day of Passover Tuesday, April 13 at 9:00 a.m. Yizkor Service at 11:15 a.m.

We conclude the Festival of Pesach with songs and prayer! On this day, we take time to celebrate the blessing of the memory of our loved ones who are no longer with us.

“The Boy with the Star Tattoo”

by Talia Carner

From acclaimed author of The Third Daughter comes an epic historical novel of ingenuity and courage, of love and loss, spanning postwar France when Israeli agents roamed the countryside to rescue hidden Jewish orphans—to the 1969 daring escape of the Israeli boats of Cherbourg.

1942: As the Vichy government hunts for Jews across France, Claudette Pelletier, a young and talented seamstress and lover of romance novels, falls in love with a Jewish man who seeks shelter at the château where she works. Their whirlwind and desperate romance before he must flee leaves her pregnant and terrified.

When the Nazis invade the Free Zone shortly after the birth of her child, the disabled Claudette is forced to make a heartbreaking choice and escapes to Spain, leaving her baby in the care of his nursemaid. By the time Claudette is able to return years later, her son has disappeared. Unbeknown to his anguished mother, the boy has been rescued by a Youth Aliyah agent searching for Jewish orphans.

1968: When Israeli naval officer Daniel Yarden recruits Sharon Bloomenthal for a secret naval operation in Cherbourg, France, he can't imagine that he is the target of the agenda of the twenty-year-old grieving the recent loss of her fiancé in a drowned submarine. Sharon suspects that Danny's past in Youth Aliyah may reflect that of her mysterious late mother and she sets out to track her boss's extraordinary journey as an orphan in a quaint French village all the way to Israel.

As Danny focuses on the future of his people and on executing a daring, crucial operation under France's radar, he is unaware that the obsessed Sharon follows the breadcrumbs of clues across the country to find her answers. But she is wholly unprepared for the dilemma she must face upon solving the puzzle.
