From Rabbi Yaffe

The experience of the High Holidays doesn't just happen. There is a lot of preparing to do. For some that means shopping, preparing the food, inviting family and friends for Yuntif meals and making sure there are apples to dip in the honey. For others it is buying new clothes and having our hair cut and styled. What about spiritual preparing? The daily blasts of the shofar in Elul are a spiritual wake-up call. They remind us to pause and ask: What really matters in my life right now? Where do I need to make amends? How can I bring more kindness, patience, and gratitude into my days? These are not questions we can answer overnight, but if we begin now, the holidays will find us more awake, more open, and more ready to be transformed. If we only "show up" at the synagogue for services once the holidays arrive, we may miss their deeper impact. Judaism, in its wisdom, gives us time to prepare—not only to set our tables, buy new clothes and set our hair, but also to ready our hearts and souls.

Here are a few simple practices we might embrace in this season of preparation:

- Take five quiet minutes each day. Use that time to reflect, to breathe, or to say Modeh Ani the morning prayer of thanks for the dawn of a new day.
- Reach out to someone you've lost touch with. A small word of connection before the High Holidays can mean more than you realize.
- Choose one mitzvah to strengthen. It may be lighting Shabbat candles, saying a blessing before eating, or setting aside time for learning. One step can shift our perspective.

When the first notes of Avinu Malkein and Unetaneh Tokef fill the sanctuary, when the lulav is raised and the Torah is danced, our experience will be enriched if we arrive spiritually awake. The holidays will still come—been there, done that—but each year offers us the chance to live them anew.

Please be sure to turn to the next page for a spiritual guide for listening to the daily calls of the shofar that will be coming into our email boxes each day of the month of Elul that begins on Monday, August 25th. May this season of Elul guide us gently toward the Days of Awe, and may 5786 be a year of sweetness, strength, and peace for us, for Israel, and for all of humanity.

Rabbi Gordon Yaffe

The Daily Shofar Blasts of Elul

Listen to the sounds of the Shofar on each of 24 days prior to Rosh Hashanah
Beginning on Monday, August 25
(no Shofar on Shabbat)

The opportunity that we will have, day after day, to listen to the 15 second video of the calls of the shofar, is meant to be one part of the effort to be spiritually prepared for the beginning of a New Year. All members of our synagogue family will be receiving these emails. If you are not a member, click here and we will be happy to send them to you.

Some Things To Think About When Hearing The Shofar

Turn toward doing good and creating peace and harmony where there is unrest and discord.

This is why the shofar must be curved and not straight.

Rejoice in the creation of the world and God's sovereignty within it.

*The sound of the shofar is like the sound of the coronation of a king.
When God is sovereign, the laws will bring us justice, security and peace.*

Remember that God cares enough for us that God revealed God's self to us at Mount Sinai.

The revelation at Mount Sinai occurred amidst the sound of the shofar.

Never lose hope in the coming of the ultimate redemption and the ingathering of our exiles.

The shofar will sound with the coming of the Messiah.

There is no ideal or value that takes precedence over the sanctity or preciousness of human life.

The shofar is a reminder of the horn of the ram provided by God to be sacrificed by Abraham instead of his son, Isaac.

Presidential Matters

Like you, we are preparing to welcome family and friends to our House (of Worship) for the upcoming holidays. We are really no different. Even with a lot of decisions we must address, the immediate priority is for our synagogue to be ready for the High Holidays. Members have been notified of Aliyah and honor invites. The Rabbi and Hazzan are organizing each service. The custodians along with Miss Audi are in the final stages of ensuring the building is set for our guests, just as you do at your homes. The talented, energy driven Debbie Sosman and her crew have just about finalized The Book of Remembrance. George Klein is coordinating the Zoom operations, running last minute tests of our equipment.

So here I was, standing in front of the synagogue on a beautiful warm late summer afternoon, the obvious questions come to mind – where, exactly, will we be next year, will we be right here or will many be joining another Conservative synagogue? There will be options, for sure. That's why it's critical to attend the congregation meeting on September 17.

I appreciate that some are very frustrated with the pace of reaching a decision. But all of us want it to be the right decision for the membership. Preferences abound. Disappointingly, some have criticized the work of the negotiating committee. This is a senseless and damaging thought process. These are the individuals who have volunteered countless hours to meet, research, discuss, and negotiate. No one is paid for their services. Still, I understand the frustration. I am frustrated, too. Listening to someone whose voice is louder than others doesn't serve the good of our community. This decision is critical. Sounds obvious. We are moving forward. Give this committee the respect each member deserves. Please plan on attending our congregation meeting on Wednesday, September 17. At this meeting (8:15 p.m. start), the congregation will vote on the budget (mailed separately), vote on the new contract with Rabbi Yaffe, and hear a presentation on the up-to-date information on consolidation talks.

Here's the schedule of upcoming events:

- September 3 If you're receiving an honor for the High Holidays, please confirm your acceptance. Help us plan accordingly.
- September 6 Shabbat services and installation of officers and board members followed by kiddush. Click here to let us know you plan on attending.
- September 15 First board meeting with newly elected members present
- September 17 Congregation meeting at 8:15 pm
- September 22 High Holidays begin

In conclusion, It's the High Holidays and everyone has become accustomed to walking into the hallowed building we have come to call home for so many years. We will be ready.

From my family to yours, may the new year bring good health, happiness, and peace.

"SIX DEGREES OF SEPARATION"

Statement by Nina S. Wolf

When I painted this watercolor in 2015, I never dreamed it would take on such significance. The people in the painting are distancing themselves, yet they seem connected. Their reflections seem connected as well.

What is interesting about the Pandemic in 2020 is that people felt closer and cared more about each other than ever. The theme of "universal connection" reminded us we were all in this together, we could help each other, and remain strong and united. Martin Luther King's Inspirational words "We Shall Overcome" reminded us we could carry on and succeed.

And yet, fast forward to 2025. Unfortunately, the world today is upside down and continues to be filled with violence and hatred, especially towards innocent people. Our differences seem to separate us rather than unite us. Will the hate ever end?

Imagine, the Earth is just a tiny speck in the multitude of universes!

What happened to our "universal connection"?

The Stolen Life of Colette Marceau
by Kristin Harmel

The novel tells the story of Colette Marceau, who has been stealing jewels for nearly as long as she can remember, following the centuries-old code of honor instilled in her by her mother: take only from the cruel and unkind, and give to those in need. But on the terrible night in 1942 that Colette's mother is arrested in Paris for stealing a priceless pair of diamond bracelets from a high-ranking German officer, Colette's little sister is taken, along with one half of the bracelet pair. Her body is later found floating in the Seine River, but the bracelet has disappeared without a trace.

Until seven decades later when Colette—who's still stealing jewels to anonymously fund worthy organizations—spots it in a museum exhibit in Boston. If Colette can discover where it has been all this time, and who owns it now, she may finally learn the truth about what happened to her sister. But she isn't the only one for whom the bracelet holds answers, and when someone from her childhood lays claim to the diamonds, she's forced to confront the ghosts of her past as never before. Against all odds, there may still be a chance to bring a murderer to justice—but first, Colette will have to summon the courage to open her own battered heart.

A Guide for Meaningful Participation In High Holiday Services

Prepare For Your High Holiday Experience

Take as much time to spiritually prepare yourself to enter the sanctuary as you do to physically prepare yourself. The person that you are on the inside should be as well put together as the person you are on the outside. Rosh Hashanah is considered to be the Day of Judgment. The day on which we present ourselves before G-d to plead our case for being inscribed in the Book of Life for a year of good health and other blessings. On Yom Kippur the verdict is sealed and the case is closed. In the days prior to Rosh Hashanah take some time to reflect upon who you are and the choices that you have made in the year that has gone by. Make amends with those whom you may have mistreated and resolve to make changes in your life if changes are warranted. Be ready to come before the Sovereign of the universe, standing tall with confidence, pride and humility.

Be a Participant, Not a Spectator

When you arrive for services, strive to be ready with a sense of awe to stand before G-d with prayers in your heart and on your lips. As a member of the congregation you are not a spectator at a service that is being conducted on the bimah, you are a valuable participant without whom the service cannot take place. When it is appropriate, sing along with the cantor and the congregation. At other times, read the English and contemplate the meaning of the prayer. At other times allow your soul to be moved by the melodies and envelop yourself in silent meditation. These are all different ways of actively participating in the service.

Know Before Whom You Stand

The primary goal of being in the sanctuary is to communicate with G-d, not with our neighbors. Talking should be reserved for outside of the sanctuary. Chewing gum while participating in services is inappropriate. Although it is customary for people to leave the sanctuary during services, remember not to leave when the ark is open, when the congregation is standing, when the rabbi is giving his sermon or when the cantor is offering the Hin'ni.

With best wishes for a spiritually uplifting High Holiday experience and a happy and healthy New Year.

Operation Isaiah

Each year, our congregation participates with congregations throughout the country in a program called Operation Isaiah. This program is in response to the words of the Prophet Isaiah that is part of the Haftarah on Yom Kippur.

*Is this the fast I desire,
A day for men to starve their bodies?
No, this is the fast I desire:
To unlock the fetters of wickedness and Untie the cords of the yoke to let the Oppressed go free;
It is to share your bread with the hungry,
and to take the wretched into your home...
(When) you offer your compassion to the
Hungry and satisfy the hungry creature...
Then shall your light shine
In the darkness,
And your gloom shall be like noonday.*

Bring more meaning to your fast this year by giving food that you might have eaten on Yom Kippur to someone who has little or no food to eat. As Yom Kippur approaches, let our ears and hearts be open to hearing and acting upon the sacred words of our prophets.

Bring your grocery bag filled with non-perishable food and other items as suggested below to the synagogue during the week between Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur. We will deliver the collected food to the Five Towns Kosher Food Pantry after the holiday.

Suggested Items for Operation Isaiah

Tuna, Salmon, Spaghetti Sauce, Pasta,
Juice Boxes, Soups, Rice, Peanut Butter, Jelly, Condiments, Kid Friendly Snacks & Cereal,
Canned Fruit, Paper Towels, Toiletries

A Tashlich Service

On the first day of Rosh Hashanah, Tuesday, September 23 at 5:00 pm.
we will be gathering for Tashlich and Mincha at the entrance of the Daniel Jay Berg Memorial Park in Russell Gardens.

Bring some bread!

Today we come to this body of water to perform the Tashlich ceremony. By throwing bread into the water, we symbolically "cast away" our sins and transgressions so that we may purify our hearts and our souls as the new year begins.

Let us cast away the sin of deception, so that we will mislead no one in word or deed, nor pretend to be what we are not.

Let us cast away the sin of vain ambition, which prompts us to strive for goals which bring neither true fulfillment nor genuine contentment.

Let us cast away the sin of stubbornness, so that we will neither persist in foolish habits nor fail to acknowledge our desire to change.

Let us cast away the sin of envy, so that we will neither be consumed by desire for what we lack nor grow unmindful of the blessings which are already ours.

Let us cast away the sin of selfishness, which keeps us from enriching our lives through wider concerns, greater sharing and from reaching out in love to other human beings.

Let us cast away the sin of indifference, so that we may be sensitive to the sufferings of others and responsive to the needs of people everywhere.

Let us cast away the sin of pride and arrogance, so that we can worship God and serve God's purpose in humility and truth.

Avinu Malkeinu

Avinu Malkeinu, she-ma ko-lei-nu
Our Father our King, hear our prayer.

Avinu Malkeinu, we have sinned before you.
Our Father our King, have mercy upon us and upon our children.

Avinu Malkeinu,
inscribe us for blessing in the book of life.
Our Father our King, grant us a year of happiness.

Avinu Malkeinu, Be gracious and answer us, for we have not done enough good deeds. Please love us, be generous with us, and help us.

Avinu Malkeinu, Chaneinu va'aneinu
Ki ein banu ma'asim.

Aseh imanu tzdakah vacheshed -
Aseh imanu tzdakah vacheshed, v'hoshi'einu.

Taking a few crumbs to Tashlich from whatever old bread is in the house lacks subtlety, nuance and religious sensitivity. Instead, try this:

For ordinary sins, use - White Bread
For exotic sins - French Bread
For particularly dark sins - Pumpernickel
For complex sins - Multi-Grain
For twisted sins - Pretzels

G-d Is Forgiving

Who is a G-d like You, forgiving iniquity and pardoning the transgression of the remnant of Your people? You do not maintain anger forever, but You delight in loving-kindness. You will again have compassion upon us, subduing our sins, casting all our sins into the depths of the sea. You will show faithfulness to us as you promised our founding fathers and mothers, Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, Sarah Rebecca, Rachel and Leah.

אֲבִינוּ מִלְכֵּנוּ חֲטָאנוּ לְפָנֶיךָ:
אֲבִינוּ מִלְכֵּנוּ אֵין לָנוּ מִלֶּךְ אֱלֹהִים אַתָּה:
אֲבִינוּ מִלְכֵּנוּ עָשִׂה עִמָּנוּ לְמַעַן שְׂמֹךְ:

More details to follow.

One of the best things about coming to shul on Shabbat is the kiddush that follows services. This is an opportunity to sit with our friends and co-congregants. People are coming to shul to pray and then look forward to the socialization following services, while having something to eat and drink. However, these kiddushes come at a cost.

We are asking those of you who have happy occasions such as an anniversary of a bar/bat mitzvah, births of grandchildren, graduations, weddings, anniversaries, as well as those who have observances of yahrzeits of relatives, to sponsor a kiddush. First, come to shul so that our communal family can celebrate those happy occasions with you as well as responding "Amen" when you recite the Kaddish for your deceased loved ones. This is what a congregational family is about.

For those of you who come to shul in person or on Zoom to observe a yahrzeit, you will be given some type of honor, which could be an aliyah during the Torah reading, opening the Ark or leading an English reading. We invite you to include in your response to the memory of a loved one a contribution to the Kiddush Fund. Your name(s) will be published in our weekly Shabbat Shalom message and the weekly program that we prepare for Shabbat. The full cost of sponsoring a standard kiddush is $350. Even if you do not want to subsidize the entire cost, a contribution towards the cost will be recognized.

You can also sponsor an Oneg Shabbat, following Friday night services as well. The cost of sponsoring a Friday Night Oneg is $180.

CHARITY BEGINS AT HOME

Dear Friends:

For a number of years we have been promoting the CHARITY BEGINS AT HOME PROGRAM, which has very successful in encouraging members of our Congregation to make significant donations for the good and welfare of our synagogue.

IT IS A WAY TO CONTRIBUTE TO YOUR SYNAGOGUE
WITHOUT IT COSTING YOU ANYTHING.

The principle is very simple:

- We all make contributions to worthy causes through the year and most of us have a charity budget.
- We should be focusing our contributions on institutions that are most meaningful to us and do the most good.
- CHARITY BEGINS AT HOME and Congregation L'Dor V'Dor is our spiritual home.
- Every cent contributed goes towards sustaining our synagogue and its programs, while other charities have administration and marketing expenses.

We are not suggesting that you discontinue making contributions to other charities, but ask you to TAKE A PERCENTAGE OF YOUR ANNUAL CHARITY BUDGET (be it 10%, 25% or 50%), DONATE IT TO CONGREGATION L'DOR V'DOR, AND REDUCE THE OTHER CHARITIES PROPORTIONATELY. In this way, your total charity cost remains the same and you're benefitting your synagogue and yourself greatly. Click here to make a donation on line.

We hope you will participate in this program this Yom Kippur and give generously to your best cause.

Sincerely,
Neville Grusd
Co- Treasurer
