Our Synagogue Memorial Parks

At a time of grief, one's family should not be left to make hasty decisions. Place of burial is often a huge decision for a family. By planning in advance, you can ease the pressure on your loved ones. OLNJC offers its members the opportunity to purchase burial plots at substantially discounted prices. We have plots available at Mount Washington Cemetery in Coram, NY and at New Montefiore Cemetery in Farmingdale, NY.

If you would like additional information, please contact the office at 718-224-0404 for pricing and further details.

Some Thoughts On The Yizkor Prayers

When Yizkor is recited, we affirm our love of those so near and dear who have physically left us.

Our love, however, does not rest on physical being; it is deeper than that.

When we love, we love the inner being of the beloved, the quality that makes for uniqueness, the spirit that creates personality and character.

*That does not ever disappear.
It remains with us as long as we live.*

Time eases the pain of loss but does not erode the affection and emotions we feel for the one who no longer moves about in our midst.

*We know that whatever lives, someday must die.
That, however, is true only of the material world.
The spiritual can endure forever.*

When we lose one who is dear, we mourn, but we must not mourn excessively. We must be grateful for what we have had and find comfort in our memories.

We must continue the task of living, paying tribute to our departed by contributing to the lives of others.

Remember Me

When it is time for me to leave this world, don't think of me beneath the earth.

Instead, remember me when the earth gives life
to spring's first flowers,
when summer rain fills the air with the rich, sweet scent of earth and grass, leaf and tree.

Remember me when the sky is painted gold and red at day's beginning and at day's end.

Remember me when G-d's grandeur sweeps across the mountains and oceans, when a rare rainbow unfurls across the sky.

Remember me when you create something new,
when you paint a piece of the world in your own colors,
when you give voice to a song, a poem, or a prayer.
When my days are done,
weep only for a while.

Then remember me when the trees turn,
when a gentle breeze brushes your cheek
and tousles your hair.
Think of me.

Remember me.

And I will live on in you.

A PRAYER FOR THE JEWISH NEW YEAR

Adapted from Rabbi John L. Rosove

May we hold lovingly in our thoughts those who suffer from tyranny, subjection, cruelty, and injustice, and work every day towards the alleviation of their suffering.

May we recognize our solidarity with the stranger, outcast, downtrodden, abused, and deprived, that no human being be treated as “other,” that our common humanity weaves us together in one fabric of mutuality, one garment of destiny.

May we live harmoniously with each other and side by side, respecting differences, cherishing diversity, with no one exploiting the weak, each living without fear of the other, each revering divinity in every human soul.

May we struggle against institutional injustice, free those from oppression and contempt, act with purity of heart and mind, despising none, defrauding none, hating none, cherishing all, honoring every child, every creature of the earth.

May the Jewish people, the state of Israel, and all peoples around the world know peace in this New Year, and may we nurture kindness and love everywhere.

The Gift of Memory

May the memories of our loved ones inspire us to seek in our lives those qualities of mind and heart which we recall with special gratitude.

May we help to bring closer to fulfillment their highest ideals and noblest strivings.

May the memories of our loved ones deepen our loyalty to that which cannot die — Our faith, our love, and devotion to our heritage.

As we ponder life's transience and frailty help us O God, to use each precious moment wisely, to fill each day with all the compassion and kindness which You have placed within our reach.

Thus will the memories of our loved ones abide among us as a source of undying inspiration and enduring blessing.

Prelude to the Mourner's Kaddish

How do we face the reality of death?

By giving thanks to God for the gift of life.

By voicing appreciation for the blessings, we have known.

By being grateful for those lives that have touched ours and whose echoes still resound in us.

May the Kaddish, which we now recite, be not only a remembrance of those no longer with us, but also a reminder of how we should live and the values we should represent.

Mourner's Kaddish

יְיָ רֹעִי, לֹא אֶחָסֵר.

Adonai is my shepherd, I shall not want.

בְּנֵאוֹת דֶּשֶׁא יַרְבִּיצֵנִי,

God gives me repose in green meadows,

עַל מֵי מְנַחוֹת יְנַהֲלֵנִי.

and guides me over calm waters.

נַפְשִׁי יִשׁוּבֵב, יְנַחֲנִי בְּמַעְגְּלֵי-צֶדֶק לְמַעַן שְׁמוֹ.

God will revive my spirit and direct me on the right path
— for that is God's way.

גַּם כִּי אֵלֶךְ בְּגִיא צִלְמוֹת
לֹא אִירָא רָע כִּי אַתָּה עִמָּדִי.

Though I walk in the valley of the shadow of death,
I fear no harm, for You are at my side.

שִׁבְטְךָ וּמִשְׁעֶנְתְּךָ הֵמָּה יְנַחֲמֵנִי.

Your staff and Your rod comfort me.

תַּעֲרֹךְ לִפְנֵי שִׁלְחֹן נֶגֶד צָרָי,

You prepare a banquet for me in the presence of my foes;
דִּשְׁנַתְּ בַשֶּׁמֶן רֹאשִׁי, כּוֹסֵי רִוְיָה.

You anoint my head with oil, my cup overflows.

אֵךְ טוֹב וְחֶסֶד יְרַדְפוּנִי כָּל-יְמֵי חַיִּי,

Surely goodness and kindness shall be my portion
all the days of my life,

וְשִׁבְתִּי בְּבֵית יְיָ לְאָרְךָ יָמִים.

and I shall dwell in the house of Adonai forever.

A Prayer For Fallen Israeli and American Soldiers

God of Love, God of Peace. We ask that you protect the souls of those who lost their lives serving in the armed forces of the State of Israel and of the United States of America. These brave men and women who responded to the call of duty sought to protect our lives, our values and our freedom to live proudly and securely as Jews and as Americans and to make the world a better place.

May the memory of these heroic souls inspire us to be part of the process to promote peace throughout the world and bring us closer to the day when "Nation shall not lift up sword against nation, neither shall they learn of war anymore." Amen.

A Yizkor Meditation

Yizkor is brief. Following a few prayers, we are left with moments of silence to think about those who were closest to us. What should we do during those moments? How should we best remember those who no longer walk this earth?

During these silent moments let's take a journey into the hearts of our loved ones. Close your eyes, and imagine walking into a room, perhaps a room in the home in which you grew up. Now shut the door and envision your beloved father or mother, husband, wife or partner, sister or brother, son or daughter, other relative or friend. Look into their eyes, touch their hands and feel their skin. Listen to their voices.

Let's speak with our loved ones. What do we want to say that we didn't when they were alive? Perhaps we will say, "I am a new mother" or "new father" and then introduce them to the child they never met. Or, show them how their little grandchild has grown since they left. We may share professional news. Maybe we will say, "Thank you for all you did." We might apologize for hurting them or grant them forgiveness. Or we might simply say, "I love you and miss you so very, very deeply." During these moments see them, hear them, touch them. Make peace with yourself and with God. Then you will have transformed these ordinary moments into sacred moments.

Yizkor – In memory of relatives and friends

אֶת־פָּנָיָה, נְעִימוֹת בְּיַמֶּינָה נֹצֵחַ. אָמֵן.

May God remember the soul of my mother who has gone to her eternal home. In loving testimony to her life, I pledge charity to help perpetuate ideals important to her. Through such deeds, and through prayer and remembrance, is her soul bound up in the bond of life. May I prove myself worthy of the gift of life and the many other gifts with which she blessed me. May these moments of meditation strengthen the ties that link me to her memory and to our entire family. May she rest forever in dignity and peace. Amen.

We Remember Them

At the rising of the sun and its going down,
we remember them.

*At the blowing of the wind and in the chill of winter,
we remember them.*

At the opening of the buds and in the rebirth of spring,
we remember them,

*At the shining of the sun and in the warmth of summer,
we remember them.*

At the rustling of the leaves and in the beauty of autumn,
we remember them,

*At the beginning of the year and at its end,
we remember them.*

As long as we live, they too will live; for they are now a part of us, as we remember them.

*When we are weary and in need of strength
we remember them,*

When we are lost and sick at heart,
we remember them.

*When we have joy we crave to share,
we remember them.*

When we have decisions that are difficult to make,
we remember them.

*When we have achievements that are based on theirs,
we remember them.*

As long as we live, they too will live; for they are now a part
of us, as we remember them.

A Prayer For Those Not Saying Yizkor For Parents

Almighty God, while those who have lost their parents call to mind those who have gone to their eternal rest, I, at this solemn moment, raise my eyes to You, the Giver of Life, and with a grateful heart thank You for Your mercies in having preserved the life of my beloved mother and father.

May it be Your will, dear God, to bless them with good health and strength, so that they may be with me for many years to come. Bless them as they have blessed me, and guard them as they have guarded me.

In return for all their affection and the sacrifices which they have made for me, may I bring them joy and lighten their cares. May it be my privilege to help them in every way that lies within my power. May I learn to understand and recognize my duty to them, that I may never have cause for regret when it is too late. I am grateful for the opportunity to express my appreciation for the blessing of continuing to share my life with my parents. Amen.

Their Memories Illumine Our World

There are stars whose light reaches the earth only after they themselves have disintegrated. And there are individuals whose memory lights the world after they have passed from it. These lights shine in the darkest night and illumine for the path.

Special People In Our Lives

Today we remember those who have passed forever from our midst, leaving us a heritage of tender memories which fill our hearts and our minds.

Some recall beloved parents who provided strength and protection, loving parents, who nursed, guided and sacrificed for their children.

There are those who embrace the memory a wife, husband or partner with whom they were truly united in hopes and in pains, in failures and achievements, in joys and in sorrows.

Some are thinking of brothers and sisters who shared in the play of childhood and in the youthful adventure of discovering life's possibilities; bound by a heritage of family tradition and by years of comradeship and love.

There are those who remember children to whom they gave their loving care and from whom they received a trust that enriched their lives.

Some remember teachers, whose encouragement and wisdom helped them to find their own paths in life and there are those who remember colleagues with whom they shared in the challenges of professional life.

Many of us recall beloved relatives and friends whose affection and devotion enhanced our lives, and whose visible presence will never return to cheer, encourage or support us.

There Is A Time

There is a time for everything
there is a time for all things under the sun

a time to be born and a time to die

a time to laugh and a time to cry

a time to dance and a time to mourn

a time to seek and a time to lose a time to forget and a time to remember

This day in sacred convocation we remember those who gave us life.

This day we remember those who enriched our life with love and beauty, with kindness and compassion, with thoughtfulness and understanding.

This day we renew the bonds that bind us to those who have gone the way of the earth.

As we reflect on those whose memory moves us this day, we seek consolation, and the strength and the insight born of faith.

Tender as a father with his children
the Lord is merciful with His worshippers

*He knows how we are fashioned
He remembers that we are dust.*

שְׁנִיתִי יְיָ לְנֶגְדִי תָמִיד. כִּי מִימִינִי בַל־אֲמוֹט:
לְכֵן שִׂמַּח לִבִּי וַיִּגַּל כְּבוֹדִי. אֶף־בְּשָׂרִי יִשְׁכֵּן לְבֶטַח:

Shi-viti Adonai l'negdi tamid, ki mi-mi-ni bal emot.
Laheyen samah libi va-yagel k'vodi, af b'sari yish-kon la-vetah.

I have set the LORD before me always,
God is at my right hand; I shall not fail.
Therefore my heart rejoices, my whole being exults,
And my body rests secure.

Yizkor Is An Opportunity To:

Remember those people in our lives who are no longer alive and dwell for a few moments on the lives that they lived.

Remember the lessons that they taught us by word or by deed and reflect on how much we miss them.

Mourn their passing, weep for their absence, celebrate their lives and thank God that they were part of our lives.

Value our relationships with our loved ones and focus on the bonds that continue to join us.

Reflect on the issues that were unsettled and move closer to letting go of those loose ends.

Reflect on the impermanence and fragility of life and remind ourselves that sometimes people die tragically before their time.

Consider our own mortality, value our own lives and resolve to use our time wisely.

Reflect on what lives after us and remind ourselves that on the one hand we are but dust and ashes, but on the other hand, we are children of God created in the image of God.

יְיָ מֵהָאָדָם וּמִדָּעָהּ. בְּרִאֲנוֹשׁ וּמִחֲשָׁבָהּ:
אָדָם לְהֵבֵל דָּמָה. יָמָיו כְּצֵל עוֹבֵר:
לְמִנּוּת יָמֵינוּ בֶּן הַדּוֹעַ. וְנָבֵא לִבֵּב חֲקָמָה:
פּוֹדֶה יְיָ נֶפֶשׁ עֶבְדֵּיו. וְלֹא יִאֲשָׁמוּ כְּלִי־חַסִּים בּוֹ:

LORD, what are we humans that You have regard for us,
Mere mortals, that You take account of us?

We are like a breath,
Our days are like a fleeting shadow.

Teach us to number our days,
That we may attain a heart of wisdom.

The Lord redeems the lives of God's servants.
Those who trust in God shall not feel forsaken.

This Memorial Service and Book of Remembrance is dedicated in love and devotion to the fond and sacred memories of those whom even the power of death could not take from us.

Its publication is made possible through the contributions of those in whose hearts they continue to live.

Create A Perpetual Memory For Your Loved Ones

It is a meaningful Jewish tradition to honor the memory of a loved one with a plaque on a memorial board within the synagogue. The memorial plaques in our synagogue are now displayed on a beautiful memorial screen in our lobby. Each week, the plaques for the yahrzeits that are being observed that week are displayed. Additionally, all memorial plaques are displayed during each of the four Yizkor services that are conducted each year.

We invite you to consider remembering your loved one in perpetuity by purchasing a plaque to be displayed on our Virtual Memorial Board.

With the purchase of a memorial plaque, each year you will receive a reminder of the yahrzeit, the name of your loved one will be included in our Shabbat program and will receive special distinction in the annual Book of Remembrance. On the individual screen which can be privately accessed on line from anywhere at any time, a picture and biography can be included.

Jewish tradition sees memory as a sacred act, allowing us to be inspired by the good in a loved one's life and live more fully in our own lives.

Please contact the synagogue office at 718-224-0404 for pricing and more details regarding purchasing a Virtual Memorial Plaque.
